Another Revenue Stream for Your Published Book

Technology is moving in the direction of everything digital. The future promises hand-held reading devices that will be able to hold hundreds of eBooks at a time.

When you sell your eBook on the internet, it is instantly available to the whole world, not just a few bookstores. Anyone from any country, at any time, can buy your eBook, and download it instantly.

There are many distinct benefits to eBooks and FCB's offering you many of them. It would be a good revenue stream for your published book.

Sell your eBook with First Choice Books

For over 20 years, First Choice Books has created a reputation for exceptional quality and service that has fuelled unprecedented growth through old-fashioned word of mouth and smart advertising.

Unlike faceless internet book publishing companies, that offer you the world and deliver very little, we know how important your book is to you.

We make sure that your book is designed, formatted and bound in a way to attract readers in bookstores. Take advantage of our many free services such as an ISBN, CIP and a barcode.

We are proud to have clients around the world and helping them find simple solutions to complex jobs at affordable prices.

- Listing with Amazon and file conversion for $25
- 50/50 – split on royalties
- Call for details and contract
